SONOMA, JUNE 19, 1897.

THE WATER PROBLEM.

A former resident and property-owner of Sonoma writes to a friend as follows in regard to the water question, which is now agitating this town from center to circumference. The writer evidently knows whereof he speaks. "He says: "Of course I have heard all about the new movement to furnish water for Sonoma. In my opinion it is done to defeat the bonding proposition which will be submitted to the voters on Monday, July 12th. It will cost at least $20,000 to put in a sufficient water supply and that amount of money must come from somewhere. You may raise the money by subscription, sell stock of an incorporated company, or by bonding the town, but the money will have to be raised. The bonding proposition distributes the payments to better advantage. It does not require the present property holders to bear the burden, but it puts some of the load on the coming citizen—the next generation. "The town ought to be able to carry a debt of $20,000 or more and pay principal and interest in twenty years. If not, it is a poor recommendation for its future prosperity, and people should not be expected to settle there."

GLEN ELLEN ITEMS.

Senator Perkin's nephew resistered at the Mervyn Hotel Monday last.

Dr. Osborne of the California Home has returned from a flying trip to the metropolis.

The dance given by the Glen Ellen Glee last Saturday evening was a grand success in a social and financial way.

Dr. C. C. O'Donnell is stopping on his ranch here. His cottages, which are almost filled, offer a fine resort for those desiring to keep a cottage during their summer outing.

Miss C. Sanborn arrived at Glen Ellen on Tuesday evening last and made a tour of the Mervyn Grounds with Miss G. Gummel Wednesday. She expects to spend the summer here.

Guests registered at the Mervyn Hotel as arrivals for last week are as follows: C. Donahue, wife and family, H. H. Elliot, Jas. Y. Player, E. C. Donaldson, Judge R. W. Miller.

Mr. S. S. Hooper, who is stopping at the Mervyn, had for his guests Saturday evening his brother, G. K. Hooper, and Mr. G. Y. Player. They formed a jolly good crowd, at least those at the Mervyn think so.

The change in time on the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway is duly appreciated by the residents of this valley. The old and popular conductor, Tommy Cummings, is at the head of the freight train running from Tiburon to Glen Ellen.

Barbed wire forms one of the most dangerous articles found on a ranch. Several horses have been injured in this vicinity the past two weeks.

OCCASIONAL.

Notes From Glen Ellen.

Geo. W. Beatty has purchased a new delivery wagon.

M. F. Turley had business at the County Seat last Wednesday.

Wm. Cordes and family of San Francisco have leased the Wilson cottage for the summer.

Services at the Congregational Church will in future be held at 8 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

John M. Hendley is improving the rear of his premises by excavating and carpenter work. The Colonel has the job.

The public School here will close tomorrow and the event will be observed by a picnic in Nun's Canyon.

REMINGTON.

Glen Ellen, June 18, 1897.

To send on the Foaming Billows.

You may never have been, but if you cross the Atlantic, no matter how smooth the watery expanse, without sea sickness you are well, a lucky voyager that is all. Old tars who have spent their lives on the ocean waves, who were almost born, so to speak, with their "sea legs on," suffer now and then from sea sickness in very tempestuous weather. Sea Captains, tourists, commercial travelers and yachtsmen say that there is no finer safeguard against nausea than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it has been equally reliable as a preventive for invalids who travel by steamboat and railroad, and who sometimes suffer so much in those conveyances as ocean travelers do in steamships. Bilio-ness, constipation, sick headache and disorder of the stomach caused by oppressive climatic influences or unwholesome or unaccustomed food or water, always yield to the Bitters speedily. This popular medicine also remedies rheumatic, kidney and nervous disorders, and the infirmities incident to increasing years.

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame came up from San Francisco Tuesday evening. Mr. Burlingame, who is now at Pleasanton, will join his wife in a short time.

Mrs. Amelia Bates, Sonoma's Postmistress, writes from the home of her cousin in Santa Cruz that since her arrival at the city by the sea she feels very much improved in health. Mrs. Bates left Sonoma last Monday.

The marriage of Robt. P. Hill, son of Wm. McP. Hill, and Miss Kate Donahue of San Rafael will be solemnized early next month. Mr. Hill has built a pretty home near Eldridge for his prospective bride.

The sail boat recently presented to J. P. Weems by Foreman Hamilton of the Jones ranch was tested Wednesday. Jim has her anchored in Sonoma Creek, near the draw bridge, and says she is a perfect dandy. He has christened the boat "Bessie K."

A congenial company gathered at the home of Mrs. Dewey last Thursday afternoon in response to invitations issued by the hostess for an informal tea. The time was spent in desultory conversation; in listening to music and in social intercourse.

J. J. Cowan, in the employ of a prominent wholesale druggist of the metropolis, is a guest at the Mervyn Hotel, Glen Ellen. Mr. Cowan is a talented young man and will remain in the valley for some time. During his sojourn he will amuse himself in hunting, fishing and photographing the many points of interest in the neighborhood of Glen Ellen.

From Schellville.

Last Friday night was a gala one among Schellville's Four Hundred, when a large pleasure-seeking crowd tended a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kennedy. Music was one of the main features of the evening and our talent in this line was heard to advantage. Even the Schellville mosquito lent his musical note for the occasion. Dancing was indulged in throughout the evening and refreshments were served. At three o'clock Saturday morning the lingering merry-makers departed and wended their way homeward.

Mrs. Donahue has returned from the metropolis. Park Donahue of San Francisco spent Sunday with his mother.

Sheriff's Sale.

Under Execution.

W. G. Anderson, Plaintiff, vs. Alice Hammond, Defendant.

By Virtue of an Execution, issued out of the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on the 14th day of May, A. D. 1897, and to me directed and delivered, for a judgment rendered and entered in said Court, on the 18th day of March, A. D. 1897, in favor of W. G. Anderson, plaintiff, and against Alice Hammond, defendant, for the sum of Ninety Eight and 50-100 ($98.50) Dollars, principal, lawful money of the United States, with interest thereon, from the date thereof at the rate of seven per cent, per annum till paid, together with costs and disbursements at the date of said judgment, amounting to the sum of $14.30. The whole amount aggregating $112.80 lawful money of the United States, and the same to be at interest at the rate of seven per cent, per annum till paid.

Right of way for wagon road reserved as surveyed by Geo. P. Aston, Surveyor, through this property. The property is hereby conveyed to Miss Alice Hammond as her sole and separate estate, free of all claim and interest therein in favor of her said mother, Mrs. Alice Hammond, as the same is laid down and delineated upon the map or plan of the said Town, filed in the office of the County Recorder, and the County of Sonoma, State of California, on the 8th day of August, A. D. 1887. Also, do hereby by these presents grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said party of the second part, and to her heirs and assigns forever, the following described real estate, situated in the Town of J. Guillos, now Kenwood, County of Sonoma, State of California, to-wit: Commencing at a point on the Southern line of the tract of land conveyed to Lucy Box by William Hood, by deed dated July 22nd, 1896, and recorded in Book 86 of Deeds, page 413, Sonoma County Records, and which point is the extreme north corner of the tract of land conveyed to Eugene E. Schmitz by this party of the second part, by deed dated March 14th, 1888, and recorded in Book 112, page 194, of the same records, said point being the point of beginning, containing ten acres of land, courses true, variation 17° 30' East, the party of the second part reserves the right of way for a wagon road through this land of thirty feet width, also beginning at the South corner of the 10 acre tract to the said C. At 1:30 o'clock P. M. of that day, in the City of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, in front of the Court House, (at the Fourth and Market Streets), I will offer for sale at Public Auction and sell to the highest and best bidder for cash, lawful money of the United States, all the right, title and interest of Alice Hammond, of in and to the above described property, said property standing recorded in the name of Miss Alice Hammond, or so much thereof, as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to satisfy said judgment with interest and costs.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

The Eagle Will Scream Here on Independence Day.

Picnic, Music, Literary Exercises and a Grand Ball.

The citizens of Sonoma are going to celebrate the one hundred and twenty-first anniversary of our Nation's independence on July 5th in true patriotic style.

The Committee having the celebration in charge met at the City Trustees apartments Thursday evening and discussed the matter at considerable length.

The Finance Committee reported that $11150 had been willingly subscribed and an equal amount was in sight.

The entertainment talked of some time ago for the evening of the 5th has been abandoned and a grand ball will be given in its stead.

No parade will be held in the morning, but the literary exercises will commence in the City Pavilion, which will be appropriately decorated, promptly at 10 a. m.

The following programme will be presented:

Music, Orchestra; prayer, Rev. Father Quill; remarks, President of the Day, Mayor J. H. Seipp; music, Orchestra; Reading of the Declaration of Independence, Dr. H. H. Davis; music, Orchestra; oration, Benjamin Weed; song, "Star Spangled Banner," Miss Claire Hope; music, Orchestra.

The following athletic sports have also been arranged for the afternoon:

BICYCLE RACES.

One mile for young men over sixteen; one mile for boys under sixteen; one mile handicap, open to all; one mile ladies race; two mile handicap for gentlemen.

FOOT RACES.

One hundred yards, young men over sixteen; one hundred yards, boys under sixteen; one hundred yards, girls under sixteen; one hundred yards, ladies; fifty yards, married ladies; fifty yards, fat men's race.

In addition to the above there will be a wheelbarrow race, sack race, greased pig chase, tug-of-war and many other amusements.

The Sonoma giants will challenge the world in the tug-of-war contest.

First Communion.

Last Sunday morning forty-four children received First Communion at St. Francis' Church. The Sacrament was administered by Rev. Fathers O'Shea and Lindner, who have been conducting a Mission here for the past week.

The choir, with Mrs. Lucia Walliser as organist, sang La Hache's in G and Mrs. Lulu Emparan and Miss Natalia Harastky rendered "Tan-tun Erigo" and "O! Salutaus." Following are those who received Holy Communion: Anita Emparan, Loretta Muldry, Amy Engler, Josephine Caminata, Lettie Watt, Annie Gough, Mary Caminata, Adile Dutil, Lillian Demartini, Ruth Poppe, Kate Watt, Annie Castagnasso, Lulu Johnson, Mary Landy, Mary Valenti, Clara Weyl, Katie Stephens, Maggie Stephens, Jane Dutil, Magaretta Andriux, Katie Lang, Mary Monahan, Ella Monahan, Rosina Huber, Lena Baccalupi, Carlos Emparan, Raoul Emparan, John Laux, Thomas Mullin, Michael Mullin, Joseph Infield, Matthias Engler, Archille Baccala, Julius Poppe, Michael Maffei, George Perasso, August Marcy, John Valenti, Frederick Riehl, John Castagnetto, Anton Laveroni, Louis Baccalupi, Louis Castagnetto, William Castagnetto.

Incipient Blaze.

Sunday afternoon, while a number of boys were playing ball in the vacant lot known as the Poppe field, they noticed smoke arising as they supposed, from an out house of the Central Market. Thinking it was from the smoke house no attention was at first paid to the matter, but as the smoke became more dense the boys hastened from the field to inquire into the cause.

They found one of the out houses of F. Grothaus' saloon enveloped in flames and quickly gave the alarm. Assistance was close at hand and by the timely use of several buckets of water the fire was extinguished. During the excitement one of the on-lookers had a bucket of water dashed in his face and was completely swamped. This is the second conflagration in that block within the past few months.

FIRST GRAND CONCERT

The Sonoma Valley Orchestra Crowned With Success.

Union Hall Was Crowded to the Doors Last Night.

The first grand concert of the Sonoma Valley Orchestral Society is now numbered among the events that were. Last night, at Union Hall, this unsurpassed musical organization made its initial bow to the public and the programme rendered will be recorded on the social page of history as one of the greatest treats ever tendered the people of the Valley of the Moon.

The old brass band, which was our pride and boast in days of yore, gave many successful concerts at this place, but never were they attended by a larger or more appreciative audience than the affair of last night. Mr. Hugh Maxwell, the efficient leader of the orchestra and the members generally, must feel justly proud of their marvelous success. The programme, which follows this paragraph, was rendered with all the skill that perseverance and constant practice could produce:

March, "Under the Double Eagle," Wagner. Overture, "The Golden Sceptre," Schlegel. Intermezzo from Opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana," Mascagni. Song, "For All Eternity," Mascheroni. Miss Claire Hope—Violin Obligato, Mr. Gilfeather. Gavotte, "Silver Bells," Isenman. Grand Fantasia on Popular Airs, Beyer. String Quintette, "In the Mill," Gillet. Violin Solo, "Concert Stueck," Vieuxtemp, Mr. Bernhard Mollenhauer. Cavatina, Earl Valse Caprice, Jensen.

Each number was warmly applauded and many encores were in order. When Miss E. Claire Hope appeared on the rostrum she was greeted by a very complimentary ovation. Miss Hope's fame as a vocalist of rare capabilities is not limited to Sonoma Valley, but many fashionable audiences abroad have learned to appreciate her exquisite soprano voice. Her rendition of Mascheroni's lovely ballad, "For All Eternity," was really superb and would please the most fastidious critic, every note being as clear and sweet as the chime of a bell. In response to a merited recall, which was enthusiastically given, Miss Hope sang, with marvelous effect, "Schubert's Serenade." The piano accompaniment was rendered by Mrs. Dr. Walliser, and Mr. Gilfeather of San Francisco played a violin obligato in place of Mr. Llewellyn Hughes, who was taken suddenly ill.

Mr. Bernhard Mollenhauer, the famous violinist of San Francisco, whose appearance before a Sonoma audience some time ago caused considerable talk in musical circles, was also among the star attractions of the evening. His solo, "Concert Stueck," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Dr. Walliser, was most inspiring. The sweetness and softness of the notes of his violin go to show the capabilities of true musical art, developed by years of unceasing cultivation. Mr. Mollenhauer's inimitable production can better be imagined than described and he must be heard to be appreciated. He was compelled to respond twice to hearty and well deserved encores.

At the conclusion of the musical programme the floor was cleared and dancing was in order. The lovers of the Terpsichorean art tripped the light fantastic until 1 o'clock, when "Home Sweet Home" was played by the orchestra as a grand finale to the most successful musical treat with which our people have ever been favored.
